

“

Traditionally, Indigenous cultures held differences and disabilities in high regard, which were celebrated as gifts from the Creator. Colonial structures have since coined them as disabilities, which has caused oppression and devaluation.

- Lynne Groulx

Photo: Lynne Groulx LL.L., J.D., CEO, Native Women's Association of Canada